

CODE OF CONDUCT

Satellogic is committed to operating all activities within the spirit and word of all laws and regulations affecting its employees, customers, partners, and stakeholders. All Employees must exercise the highest level of integrity, ethics, confidentiality and objectivity in their actions and relationships which may affect Satellogic. All employees (Employees) are expected to adhere to and follow the laws governing employment and the Rules of Conduct outlined herein. Any questions or concerns should be addressed with the Chief Compliance Officer (CCO).

Five ethical principles are central to all of the rules contained in this Code:

HONESTY

Employees should be truthful and sincere in all interactions.

FAIRNESS

Employees should seek to make impartial, just, and equitable decisions.

RESPECT

Employees should demonstrate respect to others at all times.

INTEGRITY

Employees should always act in a manner that instills confidence and should avoid participating in any manner where a real or perceived conflict of interest exists.

LOYALTY

Employees should remain loyal and should not engage in any conduct that calls into question the uprightness of the individual or the Satellogic.

Employees should be guided, first and foremost, by these ethical principles while performing their individual job duties and responsibilities. The following more specific rules are intended to be an application of these principles.
